OUT ON THE LIMB with George Vierhus

SOME TIME AGO, a few of the more constant readers of this column might possibly recall, we described the experience we had on the freeway with the California Highway Patrol when we were snapping a picture of Breuner's for this paper's annual progress edition.

Dick Hardy and Jim Duffield dropped us off on the freeway opposite Breuner's and continued on their way while we unstrapped our camera and went to work. Dick and Jim were to meet us back at Breuner's after they had negotiated the proper off-again, on-again maneuver.

Two CHP officers, who happened by while we were "shooting", took a dim view of our photographic activity. They seemed not a bit impressed by the importance we attached to having the picture of Breuner's for our progress edition.

They were quite insistent that we were in violation of the state vehicle code. Apparently they refrained from citing us only because they respected to some extent the press pass issued by the CHP itself.

They lectured us on the dangers, etc. when they gave us a lift back to where Dick and Jim had established a beachhead.

We got the idea, after they dumped us out, that they were glad to get out of a town that had such reckless civic characters.

-o-

ASA POSTSCRIPT to our adventure on the freeway, we note that recently, a bill was introduced in the assembly which amends the vehicle code that now prohibits persons from stopping, parking or standing upon a freeway.

The amendment when passed should once and for all clear the consciences of our two CHP friends who may still have a tinge of guilt for not carting us off to the pokey when they had the chance.

The amendment will exempt newspapermen and other news media personnel from the provisions of the code that prohibits stopping or standing on a freeway while engaged in the performance of their duties.

Come to think of it, that amendment should clear the consciences also of Dick and Jim, who were accessories-after-the-fact when we committed the violation.

And, of course, we will then be able to straighten our own halo when the amendment passes.

-o-

NOT BEING CITED by the California Highway Patrol really should not be considered an outstanding achievement.

Admittedly, however, very few people show any enthusiasm for being cited for minor traffic violations.

Not getting a ticket after being stopped by a law officer, we suppose, can be considered a sort of minor moral victory in a way, although that shouldn't be the case.

But Still a record year

Taxable sales in fourth quarter take slight dip

Campbell set an all-time record in taxable retail sales in 1966, the basis for the sales tax income for the city, despite the fact that the fourth quarter returns were down from the third period.

According to the report issued by the State Board of Equalization, Campbell's retail taxable sales for 1966 were $41,586,000.

The all-time high for a three-month period was the third quarter when the total sales were $10,835,000 and Campbell topped Los Gatos for the first time.

But during the fourth quarter, Los Gatos regained the lead in taxable sales of $11,742,000 compared to Campbell's $10,640,000. The total for the year for Los Gatos was $44,089,000.

Attributing to the slight dip in Campbell's taxable sales was the building material category which dropped more than $300,000 in the fourth quarter from the third. This category, which includes such stalwarts as Western Gravel and Campbell Lumber, in 1966 reflected the general overall "falling-off" in the construction field in the area. The "building material "classification has bolstered Campbell's sales tax income for many years.

But the category was still a healthy contributor in the fourth period with $1,709,000, in sales dropping from $2,019,000 from the third quarter. Incidentally, Los Gatos had only $218,000 in this field in the fourth period.

But Campbell's pride and joy from the sales tax point of view was the "home furnishings" division in which Breuner's leads the pack. Taxable sales for the fourth quarter in this classification went to $2,641,000, an increase of $446,000 from the previous period.

The "food" division also showed an increase in the fourth period,

Residents plant trees

Creek gets "face-lifting"

More than 75 citizens assembled on the banks of Los Gatos Creek in Campbell on Saturday morning and in a four-hour session planted more than 100 trees and cleaned the banks of excess weeds.

After the 103 trees were planted, the citizen-volunteer workers devoted their attention and physical energy to the removing of the bumper crop of weeds from the banks.

Below a group of volunteers are shown digging in as they made the weeds fly. (More pictures appear on Page 11 of this issue.

Legislators to speak here

Residents of this community will have the unique opportunity Friday, May 19, to get the answers on pressing state issues directly from the state legislators who represent the area.

Sponsored by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, four state legislators from the county, Senators Clark L. Bradley and Al Alquist and Assemblymen Earle Crandall and John Vasconcellos, will be on hand for the first legislative forum ever held in this community. The forum will take place in the Campbell High auditorium.

The C. of C. congressional action committee, headed by Director Arland Hatfield, and assisted by Director Larry Hill, is directing the forum which is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

The public is invited to the program and there will be no charge. Coffee and dessert will be served in the music room after the event when the audience will have an opportunity to meet and chat with their legislators.

C. of C. officials decided to schedule the legislative forum in place of the regular monthly luncheon meeting, so that the citizens of the community can learn from the lawmakers themselves what some of the problems are in Sacramento and how they are being solved.

The four state legislators who will be present are divided right down the middle on party lines. Senator Bradley and Assemblyman Crandall are Republicans and Senator Alquist and Assemblyman Vasconcellos are Democrats.

Council, planners to get together

To achieve a better understanding of the goals of the city by all concerned will be the objective of a joint meeting of the City Council and Planning Commission on next Monday night scheduled after the regular commission meeting.

The City Council has scheduled a study session at the city's maintenance center beginning at 8 p.m. when plans for the service center facilities will be presented.

Council members will be joined there by the planning commissioners after their meeting is completed in the council chambers.

One of the features of the joint session will be a progress report by Don Hebard, chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee, now studying the city's capital improvement program

Purchase of "shrunken" lot resolves problem

That sticky problem of what to do when necessary street improvements "shrink" property so much that its use becomes extremely limited was resolved at least in one case Monday night by the city.

The city just buys all the property.

The City of Campbell will soon become the owner of a substandard size lot on Winchester Blvd., as a result of the City Council action Monday night.

The council unanimously approved the purchase of the Ken Norton property (140-feet frontage by 55-feet in depth) at Winchester Blvd. and Alice Ave. for $21,500 upon the recommendation of City Attorney Joe Bonacina. The street improvement will take 20-feet off the depth.

Bonacina reported that Norton had indicated that he would accept that figure for his property.

The city attorney explained that it appeared more practical to acquire the full ownership than to pay the severance damage and the cost of the land that was needed for widening of the street. This was estimated to be more than $14,000 with the ownership still retained by Norton.

The attorney added that paying $500 above the city's appraisal price would be offset by the savings realized in the elimination of litigation expenses.

Committee meets Tuesday

Citizens group of 60 studies civic problems

Campbell Citizens' advisory committee, with a full complement of 64 members (including the executive board of 14) has been broken down into four study groups that are intently researching the various phases of the proposed city's capital improvement program. The committee is aiming for a June 1 deadline on the recommendation to the city council.

The committee will meet in a general session. Tuesday, June 16.

The Planning Commission and the City Council have officially adopted the capital improvement program. The object of the citizens committee is to recommend the priorities and the size of the bond issue to be presented to the voters.

The executive unit, composed of 12 members each representing a designated geographical area of the city, plus a general chairman and vice-chairmen were appointed by the City Council. This group then selected the members at large for the general committee.

Don Hebard, of 205 Calado, is general chairman and Mrs. Jeanette Watson, of 61 Catalpa Lane, is vice-chairman.

The executive committee consists of Mrs. Connie Russo, area #1, formerly of 1279 E. Campbell; L. E. (Bill) Means, area #2, 175 Poplar; Jim Cassidy, area #3, 1091 Monica Lane; Bob Dalzell, area #4, 349 Ken Circle; Richard Strong, area #5, 150 Alice Ave.; Oleg Lubeckis, area #6, 511 Division; Rex Jeffers, area #7, 162 Catalpa Lane; Rod MacDermott, area #8, 917 Torero Plaza; Mrs. Maude Smith, area #9, 825 S. San Tomas Road; Pete Giorgianni, area #10, 737 Rickey Ct.; John Billmeyer, area #11, 151 Marianna Way; Dick Straw; area #12, 1630 Palo Santo.

Heading the study group on public facilities is Norman Paul, of 44 El Caminito. Four executive members, Straw, Dalzell, Strong, and MacDermott, are also assisting.

Other members of this study group include, Dick Hardy, 1111 Cameo Drive; Gunnar Peterson, 810 Monica

Police honor four citizens Tuesday

IN APPRECIATION--During the past year Police Chief John Morgan has presented certificates of merit to four citizens of the community for their contribution to the police department and the community.

The four (pictured above with Morgan when they received their certificates) will be jointly honored at a dinner next Tuesday, May 16.

Four citizens of the community, who have been singled out during the past year by the Campbell Police Department for their cooperation, support and contributions to their community, will be jointly honored next Tuesday, May 16, at a dinner at Sveden House.

Officer Larry Newland, who was recently named as "officer-of-the-year", will also be a guest at the affair at which approximately 100 are expected to be in attendance.

Judge Richard W. Rhodes, of the Los Gatos-Campbell-Saratoga Municipal Court, will be the guest speaker and members of the Campbell City Council are also expected to be among the guests in attendance.

The four citizens who will be honored are the Rev. W.H. (Ben) Gould, pastor of the Campbell First Methodist Church; Mrs. W.R. (Evelyn) Morgan, long active in youth and PTA activities; Robert Culp, principal of Campbell High and George Vierhus, editor and publisher of The Campbell Press.

Police Chief John Morgan points out that the week of May 15 has been designated as National Police Appreciation Week. He said the program, in a small way, was the department's way of showing its appreciation of the support of the citizens of the community.

Editorial

Reaching the goal

For the second year in a row a willing group of volunteer workers have made giant strides in the improvement of the banks along Los Gatos Creek through Campbell.

Last Saturday hundreds of trees were planted and the bumper crop of weeds cut down by citizens of the community, proving once again that all it takes to accomplish objectives is the cooperation of the people concerned.

The planting of the trees and the cleaning of the banks was accomplished in just a few hours on Saturday morning. The willingness and enthusiasm of the volunteer workers and the spirit of good-fellowship that prevailed actually made the work fun. That is, if one can call any work "fun".

Fortunately, the elements cooperated also and last Saturday turned out to be the nicest day of the spring season so far.

The event had to be postponed once because of the inclement weather. But last Saturday was a day worth waiting for.

We are well aware that the unseasonable rains have forced all of us to be behind with our own individual yard work. That is another reason why we commend those who turned out Saturday for the work session for the community. It showed a definite feeling of community pride.

The city employees were out again in force setting an excellent example and we extend our hearty congratulations to them for their efforts.

The supervision and direction of the project was done in an efficient manner. All of us can take pride in the achievement.

We are well aware that miracle do not happen over night and, although a vast improvement has been made in the appearance of the area. it will take some time before the results will actually bear fruit.

Unfortunately it takes time for trees to grow. But all of us, we are sure, can envision how attractive the area will be some years hence when the hundreds of trees that have been planted in these two years will have reached their full growth.

It was heart-warming to see the city councilmen, members of the planning and park commissions, city employees and just "plain" citizens working side-by-side in the tree-planting clean-up project.

Perhaps this was a minor achievement. Yet it does illustrate that community pride is something that is not necessarily confined to one group and that there are many people in this city who are willing to work for the community's betterment.

We are especially proud to see a troop of Boy Scouts in uniform diligently working alongside adults in the beautification project.

Our special plaudits go to members of Troop #375, sponsored by the Rosemary Home and School Club, headed by Scoutmaster Pat McCue and Assistant Scoutmaster Richard Fox, who volunteered for the work session.

What makes the Scouts' action particularly impressive was that the idea to help out in this civic project originated with the boys themselves. We understand that Star Scout David McCue suggested it as a troop project and the boys themselves enthusiastically endorsed the idea.

There are some volunteer workers on Saturday who did not live within the city limits. But they, too, showed by their willingness to participate in the communitywide project that they have pride in their community of Campbell, even if the city limit signs indicate that they reside in San Jose.

All in all it was a highly successful program. It is one that should be continued year after year until the Los Gatos Creek area becomes the attractive park and recreational area that it can be.

We know we may sound at times like a cracked record as we sound off about the potentialities of the creek area. We admit that we have pounded on this theme year after year.

But the work that has been accomplished in just two four-hour work sessions in two years has increased our enthusiasm.

Admittedly hardly a dent has been made yet. But we are convinced that, because of the efforts of those dedicated citizen volunteer workers, more and more people are recognizing the potentialities of the creek area from a recreational and scenic point of view.

We are well aware that miracles do not happen overnight and, although a vast improvement has been made in the appearance of the area, it will take some time before the results will actually bear fruit.

We firmly believe that by the actual involvement of the citizens in such projects, a better understanding of the needs of the city can be attained and through this understanding the the goals can be reached.

That is also the reason we feel that the 64-member Citizens Advisory Committee now studying this city's proposed capital improvement program is one of the most progressive steps ever undertaken in this community.

Only through participation and involvement of the citizens themselves, can any mission be accomplished.

tine stops by officers of the law are not intended for the purpose of ticket-writing but just for cautioning the driver.

But in some instances, the party stopped becomes so indignant or belligerent that the cop has no choice but to start writing.

This certainly was not the case a short time ago when a California Highway Patrol officer, who had strayed off his usual beat, stopped a car on one of the streets within the city limits of Campbell.

The passengers and the driver, in this case, were especially cooperative and courteous.

The CHP officer apparently had no intention of writing a ticket when he stopped the car. We assumed he merely wanted to caution the driver about traveling the streets of Campbell.

At least, that is what we gathered from fragmentary reports on the incident.

But we doubt, if the individuals involved really needed any cautionary directives as to the streets of this town. They happen to know 'em pretty well.

You see the driver of the car happened to be City Manager Bob Stephens.

And his passengers were all five city councilmen.

No ticket was issued.

WHILE INSPECTING the "blazed trail" left by the burglars recently when they carted off the 280-pound inner vault in the safe at Campbell Water Co., we noted they made extra work for themselves while inside the office.

The burglars apparently used crow-bars or some other such tools to gain entrance through the various doors and gates into the Campbell Water Co. office.

They also probably used the same tools to pry open the safe.

Their trail was easily followed because the facing on the doors were wrecked. The marks on the floor and the walks also showed where they had dragged the vault.

But one detour they made caused them a little extra work with their bar. Apparently while inspecting a utility closet, the door slammed shut on them and locked.

This necessitated using their bar to pry open the closet door.

We can imagine that must have been a trifle frustrating.

After breaking into the building through various doors and gates, they lock themselves in a closet.

But what if they hadn't had the foresight to drag their bar with them when they went exploring in the office?

Or to put it another way; A bar in hand in this case, was worth two in the bush.

topping $1 million for the first time. ($1,080,000 compared to $988,000) in the third period.

As usual in Los Gatos, "auto dealers", a category that is almost non-existent in Campbell, provided more than 50% of taxable sales in the town of the cats. During the fourth period auto dealers had sales of $6,148,000 in Los Gatos out of a total of $11,742,000 for all taxable sales.

In the third quarter, auto sales in Los Gatos totalled $5,755,000 out of a total of $10,800.

Taxable sales for "drug stores" in Campbell also showed a gain in the fourth quarter going from $270,000 to $355,000.

Although Campbell and Gilroy were the only two of the 10 cities of the 16 in the county listed in the report to show a decrease in the fourth period from the third, Campbell's total sales still topped Gilroy, Cupertino, and Los Altos for the quarter.

The six cities beating Campbell for the period were San Jose ($177,431,000); Palo Alto ($50,119,000); Santa Clara ($44,743,000); Mt. View, ($41,597 000); Sunnyvale ($33,044,000) and Los Gatos ($11,742,000) in that order.

Taxable sales in Los Altos for the fourth quarter were $7,925,000; Cupertino, $6,482,000; and Gilroy, $5,378,000.

In every city listed but Campbell, auto agencies were the major source of taxable income.

Garden clubs hold installation

Campbell Garden Club, West Valley Garden Club and Lockheed Employees Recreation Association (L. E.R.A.) Garden Club shared the honors last week at the annual meeting and installation luncheon for the Santa Clara Valley District of California Garden Clubs.

As hostess clubs, they made the arrangements for the occassion which was held at the Governor's House in the patio at the San Jose Hyatt House. In spite of their optimism when they chose the decor for the day of changing umbrellas for parasols, they were forced by the threat of showers to move their punch bowls indoors from the terrace, as the hospitality hour approached.

The central umbrella, spilling over with flowers, was hung from the ceiling, with simulated raindrops catching the lights. Each table had its share of tiny parasols with its basket of fresh flowers as a centerpiece.

INSTALLATION

Installed as recording secretary for the District was Mrs. Ward Brannon of Campbell Garden Club. Mrs. Reginald Walbey of West Valley Garden Club was installed as corresponding secretary and Mrs. Charles Glass, also of West Valley, was installed as Parliamentarian.

Both Mrs. Brannon and Mrs. Glass are outgoing presidents of their respective clubs.

Earl B Smith, County Parks and Recreation assistant director, addressed the assemblage on the subject, "Santa Clara Valley, 1987". His ominous predictions about the lack of open space when that time comes, carried with it an appeal for garden clubs to continue their efforts to preserve living beauty.

HOUGE SCHOOL

Houge School has taken on a "new look" since planting began April 30. With the combined efforts of all donators, through monies, trees and shrubs, the landscape committee and all volunteer workers, the school landscaping can be viewed with pride.

The San Jose Landscaping Gardener's, Inc., are known for their philanthropic work and the school is most grateful to be among the recipients. President Kanji Hamamura, Harry Noshima, Tsugio Fujimoto, Alex Miyoshi and Sam Shigemoto were present to advise and help in the planting.

Continued combined efforts are still required toward completion of the project, but what is readily done is readily seen by all visitors to the school.

Girl Scouts

NEIGHBORHOOD 34

Over 700 Girl Scouts ranging in age from 7 to 17 gathered at Westmont High School Sunday afternoon for a huge flag ceremony honoring flags of all nations. The Girl Scouts were from 34 troops at eleven schools in the Moreland School District. One scout from each troop acted as Color Guard in the flag ceremony.

A high point of the afternoon was the presentation of troop money gifts to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund. This fund helps to finance international travel for selected Senior Scouts, and to promote friendship with Scouts in other countries. It was a special thrill for all the Scouts when Holly Holman, Senior Scout chosen to go to the Girl Scout International Center in Sangem, India, rose to accept the Fund money. All of the Scouts are very proud of Holly--she has worked hard for this marvelous opportunity.

Can you imagine 700 girls in a song fest? It was really something to hear. Scout songs, camp songs, fun songs, --all the songs that Singing Scouts enjoy.

To close the afternoon, the Scouts formed a huge Friendship Circle to sing "Follow the Piper".

College board discusses plans for Saratoga site facilities

Plans for the Saratoga campus again occupied much of the attention of the Board of Trustees of West Valley College at its last meeting.

The Board authorized its architects, Reid and Tarics, to proceed with the preparation of the necessary plans and construction documents for a swimming pool, eight tennis courts and a turfed area on the site.

The action came after John Lyon Reid, partner in the architectural firm, pointed out that when the Engineering and Technology Building and some relocatable buildings are placed on the site some 2,500 students will be using the facilities, thereby necessitating the creation of the athletic facilities to meet student requirements.

In making the motion for preparation of the plans, Trustee Jack Armstrong emphasized that the athletic facilities will be available for community recreation by all residents of the district, not just the students.

The Board also examined, but took no action, on six alternative plans should it become necessary to use relocatable buildings on the site.

Dr. Wallace W. Hall, college president, reported that the district has an obligation to the people of Saratoga that any relocatable buildings placed on the Saratoga site would be compatible with the surroundings and placed in an area where they would not be seen from the road, if at all possible.

Also, such buildings would be designed to be "esthetically pleasing."

In other matters, the Board:

1) Set a work session to examine the proposed $5,759,705 budget. The 1966-67 adopted budget totaled $5,361,887.85, so the new proposal, as it presently stands, is an increase of $395,818.

2). Named Donald E. Lindstrom, Santa Clara, board clerk, as vice-chairman of the Board, succeeding Dr. Edwin C. Browne, who resigned at the last meeting of the Board. Lindstrom's place as clerk was taken by Trustee William J. Homan.

3). Approved financial claims totaling $23,887.86.

4). Authorized Dr. Hall to enter into a contract on behalf of the Board with the architectural firm of Higgins and Root for the design of five relocatable buildings for the Food Services and Restaurant Management Program, to be located at Saratoga. Half of the cost of structures will be borne by Federal funds.

5). Accepted with thanks a gift of an Analog Computor and associated textbooks from Mrs. Vernon H. Gallichote, in memory of her late husband.

6). Awarded contracts for $54,788.17 for classroom and office furniture and equipment to 10 low bidders.

7). Authorized calling for bids for science equipment as listed in a National Defense Education Act application previously approved by the Board on a matching basis.

8). Created the classified position of Coordinator of Publications to handle internal publications prepared by the college and to supervise duplicating facilities. at a salary range of $676 to $821 per month.

9). Authorized purchase of office supply items from 13 different suppliers on a cash basis.

10). Approved creation of the position of Data Processing Programmer, at a salary range of $628 to $763 per month.

11). Approved an inter-district contract with San Mateo Junior College, similar to those approved in previous years with this and other districts.

12). Endorsed the three ballot items in the Tuesday, May 23 election of the Santa Clara Unified School District $2,500,000 bond proposal. Motion was made by Trustee Jack Armstrong of Santa Clara and seconded by Trustee Donald Lindstrom, also of Santa Clara.

13). Granted a leave of absence effective Oct. 1 to Nero Pruitt, assistant dean of instruction, Extended Day and Summer Sessions, to enable him to continue his pursuit of his doctoral degree at Stanford University, on a full-time basis for the next year.

14). Appointed William Whitney as a probationary employee of the District for the 1967-68 school year, and appointed Mrs. Letitia Cole of Santa Clara as a typist clerk in the Admissions Office, succeeding Mrs. Lydia Moreno, who has resigned.

Local family adopts little Korean girl

GEORGE LEWIS AND KAY MARIE

By Grace Hebard

A ten year old Korean girl has found a haven in Campbell as the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, 600 Budd Ave. With a new name, (Kay Marie) a pretty new dress, and a built-in family of two brothers, and a sister, she appears to be perfectly at ease.

Though Kay Marie speaks no English, she is already enrolled in the fourth grade at Hazelwood School.

The Lewis' adopted Kay Marie through the International Social Welfare Service and the procedure took nearly fourteen months. Lewis first became acutely aware of the problem of Korean orphans following his service with the U.S Army in Korea in 1947. A science teacher at Monroe School. Lewis has a kindly way with children, which is evident in the way he talks to his new daughter.

Kay Marie has one friend with whom she can converse until she becomes more proficient in English. She is Mrs. Pearl Witting, a Korean war bride, who is a friend of the family. Mrs. Witting stayed at the Lewis home for several days in order to become acquainted with Kay Marie and to help her adjust.

According to Lewis, the adjustment was very fast, for Kay Marie plays and romps with the other children as if she has lived here all her life.

For the past year and a half the little girl has been in a Korean orphanage, where she was given good physical care, but her education was neglected. Apparently she is learning quickly for already she is bringing home papers from school indicating she understands arithmetic. Lewis plans to have her tutored in reading during summer vacation. For us at The Campbell Press, she had a lot of smiles, and a pleasant "Bye" and "Thank you". And we have our hats off to Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis.

Robert Clanton, professional auctioneer, holds the microphone he will use as he demonstrates the style he will display during the County-used vehicles auction, Saturday May 13. Two Chamber of Commerce members share the honors as a result of the recent week-long membership drive.

Arland Hatfield topped the "ambassadors" in the "most member" category while Mrs. Connie Russo headed the "most money" division.

The two leaders accounted for more than 70% of the total membership gained during the week.

Rally Day is coming up this Friday and all classes are preparing to make battle with each other. Every year on this day, the four classes and the faculty field teams clash in contests such as relay races, egg tosses, pyramid building, and tug-o-wars for undisputed rule of the campus.

The teams also elects a prince and princess and seat them on a throne decorated in the traditional colors of their respective class. Those colors are green for freshmen, yellow for sophomores, red for juniors, blue for seniors and black for the faculty. Judging takes into consideration not only the outcome of the various events, but also decoration of the throne and spirit displayed during the festivities.

LAST DANCE

Rally Day takes a new twist this year as it figures in the competition in the interclass spirit contest. Due to this, final results of Rally Day and those of the spirit contest will be announced Friday night at a school dance, the last one of the year.

Slated for the cafeteria from 8 p.m. to 11, the dance will feature a live band, "The People". Also at this time, this prince and princess from the winning class will be crowned king and queen of Rally Day.

SPORTS

In sports last week, the Soph-Frosh baseball team lost to Los Gatos on a no-hitter and the varsity nine also lost to the Wildcats to bring their record to 7 wins and 1 loss. The varsity had beaten Camden 1-0 on a Tuesday afternoon thriller, so they are still setting the pace in their league.

The tennis team brought their record to 6 wins and 1 loss as they easily defeated both Camden and Los Gatos.

Results of last night's tennis match and varsity baseball game with Saratoga were unavailable at presstime. Elsewhere this week, the varsity nine and tennis squad play host to Westmont Thursday; May 11, as the Soph-Frosh baseballers travel to the Warrior's field. Next Tuesday will find varsity baseball and tennis at Blackford as those two seasons approach their final week. All events listed above will start at 3:30 p.m.

1 YEAR AGO

Campbell City Council officially went on record Monday night opposed to racial discrimination within the city. By a resolution unanimously adopted, the people of the community were urged to avoid discriminatory action based solely on race, creed, color or natural origin. The resolution stemmed from an alleged incident in February of discrimination with respect to three Negro West Valley College students who could supposedly find no housing in the area because of their race.

More than 27 religious orders of the Catholic Church were represented at the first religious vocation fair in Santa Clara County which was held last Saturday at St. Lucy's Church in Campbell.

Bob Culp, principal of Campbell High School, this week was the recipient of the second certificate of merit to be awarded by the Campbell Police Department. The presentation was made by John Morgan, police chief.

5 YEARS AGO

Building permits issued in the City of Campbell for the month of April total $2,385,440.00, according to figures released this week from the office of W. L. Morser, Urban Development Director.

Robert W. Brydon, Moreland School Board trustee and candidate for supervisor 4th district, stated recently that he foresees the need in the very near future for the formation of a junior college district within the Campbell, Los Gatos and Santa Clara high school district boundaries in order to insure the students from these high school districts, who wish to continue their education, the facilities when needed.

Organized crime does exist in California, despite pious statements issued by Governor Edmond Brown and Attorney General Stanley Mosk, charged George W. Milias, Republican candidate for the 22nd Assembly District. Speaking before San Jose Republican Women meeting at Los Gatos Lodge this week, Milias cited documentary evidence to prove his statement.

10 YEARS AGO

City of Campbell officials were accused of "subversive" tactics and "political gerrymandering" by the West Valley American Legion Post No. 158 Monday night. In a letter the legion protested annexation proceedings that would bring into the City a section of uninhabited territory at the southern city limits on E. Parr Ave. as part of an industrial project. The legion had obtained the blessing of the County Planning Commission to operate the clubhouse on the property after a prolonged hassle over moving a building onto the lot.

In a letter to the City Council Mrs. Elenore Poore commended the work of Sgt. John Morgan of the Campbell Police for rendering assistance to her in the return of a valuable dog.

Campbell has received $1090 from the Alcoholic Beverage Control for the city's share of the liquor license fees, City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan reported to the City Council Monday.

15 YEARS AGO

Congressional campaign of Assemblyman Charles S. Gubser in the Campbell area is reportedly rolling enthusiastically with the assistance of a committee headed by Emerson M. "Doc" Arends, Campbell lumber and hardware dealer.

Regular Campbell riders of the Peerless stage bus lines to San Jose and other points are afoot today, the result of a walkout of Peerless drivers at midnight last night because demands for a 40-hour work week and other benefits have not been met.

Cambrian Park Improvement club met for their first formal meeting in the auditorium of Cambrian School Tuesday night to hear a talk by Charles K. Gamble, new mayor of Los Gatos, and to determine the advantages of annexation by the city of San Jose.

Rev. Kennelly dies at 65

Reverend Denis Kennelly, 65, first Pastor of St. Lucy's Catholic Church, succumbed of a heart attack on Wednesday, May 3. Death came unexpectedly to Father Kennelly in his car in the parking lot of a funeral home in San Leandro as he was preparing to conduct a rosary service.

Born in Lixnaw, County Kerry, Ireland in 1902, Father Kennelly was a student at St. Patrick's Seminary there. He was ordained for the San Francisco Archdiocese in 1926. He became Pastor of St. Lucy's Church in 1947 and built the present church and school facilities here. He resigned in 1960 because of ill health.

Father Kennelly had served in various other parishes before coming to St. Lucy's including St. Joseph's, Berkeley; Star of the Sea, San Francisco; St. Mary's Stockton and Our Lady of the Pillar, Half Moon Bay.

From the fall of 1960 to 1963 he was administrator and later Pastor of St. Andrew's Church in Oakland.

He was named assistant pastor of St. Leander's Church, San Leandro in 1963. His last assignment was at St. Joseph's Church, Alameda.

A solemn Requiem Mass was conducted Saturday, May 6, at St. Joseph's Church, Alameda. Bishop Floyd L. Begin officiated. Burial was in the Holy Sepulcher Cemetery in Hayward.

He is survived by a brother, Michael Kennelly, of Ireland.

with "Charlie" Gubser

In our concern over the proliferated efforts of the United States Government to eliminate poverty and cushion the effects of human misfortune, we have overlooked some of the most obvious injustices.

As a Member of the Armed Services Committee, I have known for years that a serviceman disabled in combat was entitled to receive a percentage of his military base pay. Somehow the injustice of the provision escaped me until it was applied to a single, flesh and blood human being.

An enterprising newspaper columnist awakened many of us with the story of Lance Corporal Peter Pulis. He told how Peter Pulis, a "strapping hunk of young manhood" quit school to join the Marines and fight in Vietnam. In November 1965, he and his buddies successfully raided an enemy installation, but the pick-up helicopter struck a sudden gust of wind as Pete was climbing a rope to safety. His body was dragged into a tree and catapulted more than 200 feet. He was picked up in a coma, battered, and bleeding.

Now Pete has a plate in his head, part of his brain is missing, and his body is held together with wires and screws.

Eighty percent disabled, Pete was retired by the Marine Corps with only $136 per month until the Veterans Administration determines his compensation. This will take several months, perhaps a full year. If Pete had been a Buck Private instead of a Corporal, he would be getting only $113!

Several of my constituents were shocked by the columnist's revelation and many of them sent me clippings of the articles. The columns jolted me into action.

Last week I introduced legislation which would provide that any member of the Armed Services with a disability of 50% or more, which was caused by "hostile fire, explosion of a hostile mine, or any other hostile action", should be retired for physical disability on not less than $300 per month.

Somehow the coldness of a law known to all of us didn't loom as unfair until I though of it in terms of Corporal Pulis. $136 per month was not meaningful until I thought of it as the contribution of the richest country on earth to a young boy who had given his youth and his health in the service of his country. Frankly, I am grateful to the newspaper profession for translating the coldness of law into bright and vivid human terms.

My legislation will not require the Veterans Administration to alter its present method of determining disability and awarding service-connected compensation. The bill I have introduced attacks the problem from only the military side which is concerned with retired pay.

If a General Officer who is paid $1,000 per month received the same wounds as Peter Pulis did, he would be awarded $800 per month. The screws and the wires are no more comfortable for Corporal Pulis than they would be for any General. And, in fact, because of his youth and lower income, his injuries will more seriously jeopardize his future than for the General. The United States Government certainly can afford $300 per month to men who have given as much as Lance Corporal Pulis.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

Q. - What do home health benefits after hospitalization cover, under the Medicare program?

A. - Home health benefits after hospitalization cover part-time nursing care; physical, occupational or speech therapy; medical social services, part-time services of home health aides, use of medical appliances, and medical supplies, except drugs.

Q. - How can I tell if the nursing home my mother recently entered is an approved extended care facility under Medicare?

A. - Your local Social Security Office has a list of approved nursing homes. Also, the operator of the home should be able to tell you whether or not their services are covered under Medicare.

Q. - My father was discharged from the hospital last week fully recovered from accident injuries. He has since suffered a stroke and needs nursing home care. Will the cost of the nursing home be covered under Medicare?

A. - No. Medicare will not cover care in an extended care facility unless he is hospitalized for three days or more because of his stroke. One of the requirements for coverage in an extended care facility is that a person be admitted to the nursing home for treatment of the same condition for which he was hospitalized.

Q. - I am 64 years of age and have been drawing social security benefits since I retired a year ago. How do I go about signing up for Medicare?

A. - Since you are a social security beneficiary, you will have Medicare hospital insurance automatically when you reach 65. You will have to sign up for medical insurance since this part is voluntary and costs $3 a month. Because you are on the social security rolls, you will be mailed an application which you can fill out and return if you want medical insurance. Be sure to return the application before the month of your 65th birthday to get timely coverage.

Local airman receives Navy commendation

Airman Daniel W. Marshall, USN, son of Mrs. Ruby K. Huff of 556 Sunny Oaks Ave., Campbell, has been awarded a letter of commendation by the USS Oriskany's commanding officer for courageous actions during a ship-board fire, forward in Hangar Bay One.

Flames, heat and intense smoke spread quickly throughout the area engulfing several decks forward to the forecastle.

It was not until midday when the fire was brought under control, that personnel casualties and damage to aircraft and equipment could be assessed. In addition to extensive damage to aircraft, equipment and spaces, it was subsequently determined that 43 officers and enlisted men had lost their lives in the service of their country.

Dedication to duty, personnel courage and perseverance in the face of extremely hazardous conditions were in keeping with the highest traditions of the Naval Service.

STATE OFFICIAL---District Attorney Louis P. Bergna of Santa Clara County has been appointed state representative for the National District Attorneys' Association and will represent the state association at all national meetings.

Bergna, 45, has been D.A. of the county since his appointment by Howard Campen, county executive, Sept. 26, 1957. He was first elected in 1958 and was reelected in 1962 and 1966. Bergna, his wife, son and daughter, make their home in Saratoga.

PREPARING FOR EMERGENCY---Recently 14 men completed a week long course which qualifies them to serve as radiological defense officers in case of nuclear attack. Seated from left to right are: Francis T. Eagan, County occupational health specialist; Capt. Joel Beck, Milpitas Fire Department; Robert W. Horger, County Sealer; Will H. Ryan, Supervisor of Measurement Division, Department of Weights and Measurers, and Joseph T. Silva, supervisor, Police Department, Foothill and De Anza Colleges.

Standing are: Gill; Capt. John T. Foley, Palo Alto Fire Department; Lt. Harry E. Burns, Santa Clara Police Department; Major Max Mayer, Vanderburg Air Force Base; Capt. Jerry P. Gomes, Campbell Fire Department, and Lt. Robert W. Beveridge, Sunnyvale Department of Public Safety.

Church seminar will discuss dead sea scrolls

The Dead Sea Scrolls, those mysterious and much misunderstood ancient documents, found in caves on the shores of the Dead Sea in 1947, will be the subject of an evening seminar at St. Lawrence Episcopal Church, Campbell, on Tuesday evening, May 16, at 8 p.m.

Supplemented by film on the discovery area, the background, current scholarship and significance of the Scrolls will be discussed.

Youthful boat builders are sold on the "5-0-5"

BY SALLY HOWE

A few weeks ago, while many of us thought it might be necessary to build a boat for daily travel, two youthful Campbell High grads were boat building---with an eye toward financial survival, rather than physical.

But we're getting ahead of our story.

'Tis a well known truth that the only way to find out how a thing works is to take it apart. We don't know how Kimberlee Kienaholz Moore felt when husband Ronald started his project, or where it would lead.

We only know that Ron bought a boat--and then proceeded to dismantle it.

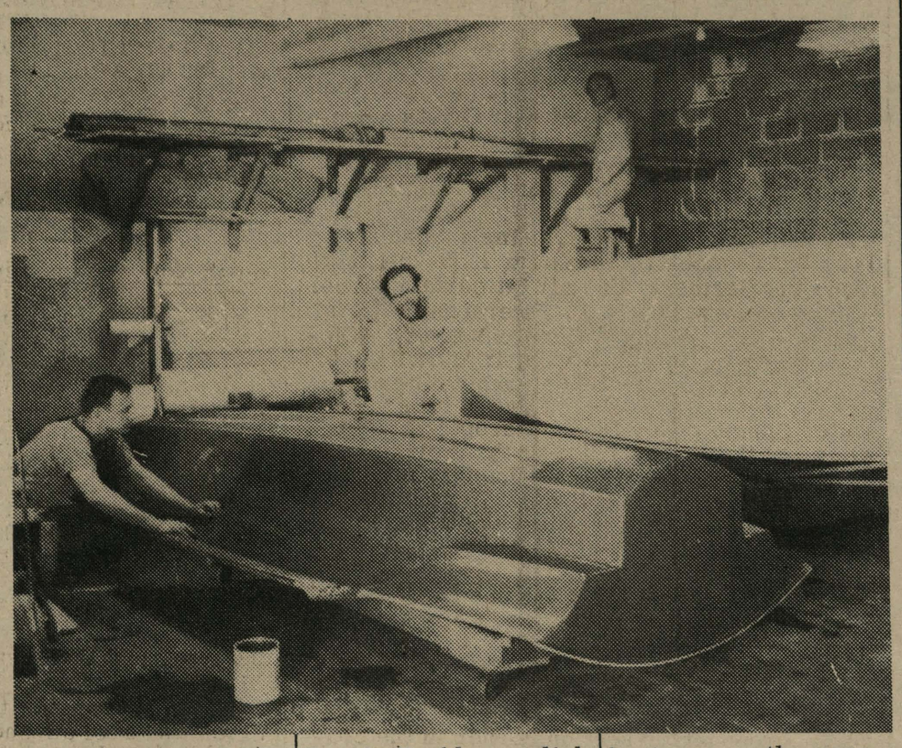
The boat, an imported "5-0-5" sailing craft, was uniquely designed nearly 15 years ago by an Englishman to sail in the International Yacht Racing Union's regatta in France. Object of the race was to determine the world's best two-man centerboard sailboat. The "5-0-5" (so named because of its overall length of 5.05 meters) won, hands down.

John and Ronald Moore are builders and designers by trade, training, inclination and talent.

Before he joined his brother in the boat building business, John was a car enthusiast, working on engines and racing locally.

Ronald worked for a boat company shortly after high school, learning the techniques of fiberglassing and construction.

The two successfully built a 24-foot sloop several years ago and decided (and rightly, no doubt, with the winter just past), to open "Dolphin Boats" on Sunnyoaks Ave.



READY FOR THE FLOOD--Owners John (center) and Ronald Moore (on ladder) and Dennis Harkless polish a "mold" which will form the interior of the two-man 5-0-5 sailboats currently manufactured by Dolphin Boats.

For a time, theirs was the only manufacturer of the 5-0-5 on the west coast. They still are the only company who has made their own molds, and can outfit the rigs completely including hardware and sails.

"We hope," says Ron, "to build a boat which can be recognized at a glance as a Dolphin-made craft, plus we want to make our shop a one-stop shopping center for boat owners. We'll make all kinds of repairs, including ones on power boats."

One cynic says that the 5-0-5s' will never catch on because their class is limited, but the bell shaped hull and racy bow are eye-filling even for the novice. Time will tell.

Meanwhile should the rains return, I know a boat shop over on Sunnyoaks.....

Golfers play for hospital

First entries are starting to come in for the first annual Campbell Community Hospital invitational golf tournament, sponsored by Villa Felice, and scheduled for Friday, May 26 at the Oak Ridge layout.

The field for the 12-noon shotgun start is limited to 150 entries. Proceeds will go to the non-profit hospital's fund for purchase of a new coronary care unit, for monitoring of serious heart patients.

Anyone getting a hole-in-one on the 18th will win a 1967 Pontiac Firebird, according to E.E. Admire, hospital administrator and golf addict.

Other prizes will be awarded for first place, low gross, first and second handicap and first and second Callaway. An awards dinner will follow at 7 p.m. at Villa Felice.

Entrance fees, $25, which are tax deductible, should be made out to the Campbell Community Hospital Association, and entry deadline is Friday, May 19.

FOR HOSPITAL--Billy Wilson, famed 49er and Campbell resident, joins Bill Stuart, who donated the 1967 Pontiac Firebird in the background, and Andre Roos, golf pro at the Oak Ridge layout, in looking over the course where the first annual Campbell Community hospital golf tournament will be held on Friday, May 26. Proceeds will be used for purchase of a coronary care unit for the hospital. All you have to do to win the Firebird is get a hole-in-one on the 18th.

DOG TEAMS

From 1858 to 1865 during winter months, dog teams carried passengers, mail and freight over a 25-mile route in the Sierra Nevada.

Retirement dinner party honors Ed Stanley

Ed Stanley, director of the adult education program for the Campbell Union High School District for the past 13 years, was the guest of honor at a "recognition dinner" hosted by the Campbell Adult Teachers Association Saturday night.

The affair was held at the Los Gatos Elks Club and attended by 160 persons including faculty members, district administrators, directors and associates in adult education.

Earl W. Downey, president of C.A.T.A. presided over the program. Laurence C. Hill, superintendent of the Campbell High School District, was the principal speaker. He pointed out the great strides the Adult School has made in the past 13 years, in which the program grew to its present six centers and approximately 5000 students.

Entertainment was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Calarrudo who presented piano and guitar medleys of Spanish songs. The tables were gayly decorated in a "gone fishing" theme, in keeping with Stanley's plans to do some fishing after retirement on June 30.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of a beautiful desk to Stanley from his associates. He was also presented an oil portrait of himself by artist Frank Vaz.

Stanley is a graduate

of the University of California at Davis, B.S. and the Univ. of Arizona, M.S. He began his work with the Campbell Adult School in 1954.

He has been active in working for legislation for adult education at both the state and national level and has received national recognition for service.

Following retirement Stanley plans on writing for publication.

Mrs. Phillipa Alvis was general chairman of the event. Her committee was Mesdames June Pond, Judy Howland, May Concklin, Pat Meiss, Ellen Wilson and Ernie Farias.

Board to visit seven schools

Campbell Union (elementary) School District trustees will have a full school day this Thursday even before they hold their regular meeting at 4:20 p.m.

Starting at 8 a.m., the trustees will begin a tour of the schools in the district and will have visited seven facilities before the board meeting begins.

They start with Hazelwood and will end at Capri. Between the two they will have paid a visit to Forest Hills, Quito, Marshall Lane, Rolling Hills and San Tomas.

They will be guests at luncheon in the Marshall Lane cafetorium which they will hit around the noon hour.

This will be third tour made by the board members. The first was on March 30 when six schools and West Valley College were visited. On April 13, they visited six more schools and the corporation yard.

City Council meets Monday

Four ordinances were given final approval by the City Council Monday night and two others their first reading.

Two of the ordinances approved involved the McGlincey Neighborhood zoning plans, another placed the city employees under the state retirement plan effective on July 1 and the final one was a routine regulation affecting soil reports in proposed subdivisions.

First reading was given the billiard parlor ordinance that specifies that establishments with three or more tables will come under its regulations. First reading was also given the ordinance that regulates the towing and storage of wrecked vehicles not covered under present ordinances.

The council deferred until next meeting the recommendation for the appointment of a library commissioner from this area.

City Attorney Joe Bonacina told the council members that he was concerned over a recent superior court decision in Sacramento which, if upheld in higher courts, will tighten the restrictions of the Brown Act which regulates the type of meetings that governmental bodies may have.

Bonacina also gave a "progress report" on the city's case against Henry Grattan over the condemnation of substandard buildings. Bonacina explained that despite any reports to the contrary the city had not dropped the case and it would soon come to court.

The council also gave approval to requests by Pyramid Homes for a lot split, a tentative subdivision and a parcel map agreement.

Approval was also given the agreement for storm sewer construction for the proposed mobile home park adjacent to the Winchester Drive-in Theater.

Campbell citizens plant trees, clean up creek banks

Even the weatherman cooperated last Saturday when the second annual tree-planting, clean-up project took place along the Los Gatos Creek banks on Saturday.

An estimated 100 citizens and city employees converged on Los Gatos Creek on Saturday morning and less than four hours later more than 100 trees had been planted and the bumper crop of weeds harvested from the creek banks.

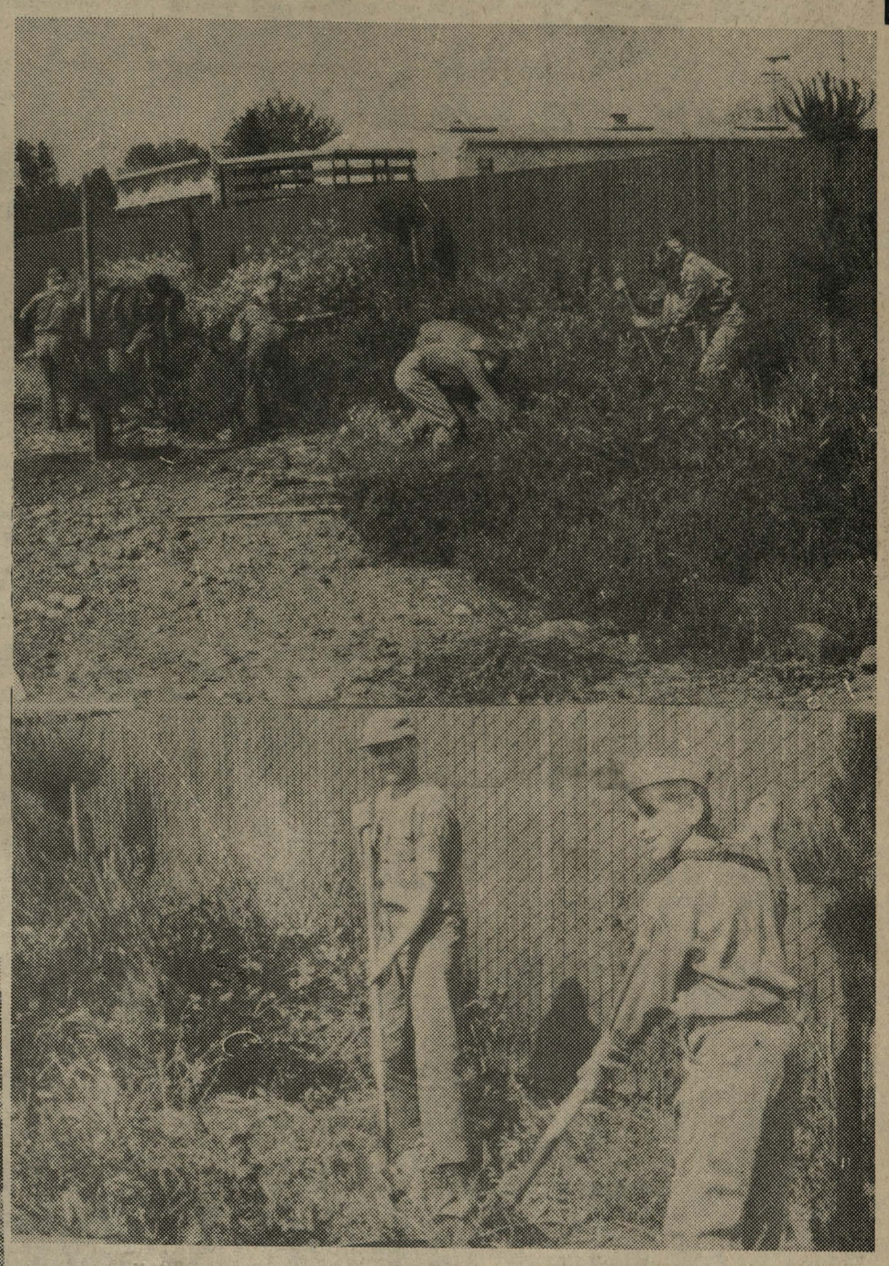
The project had been postponed from the original date of April 22 when the unseasonable rains made any tree planting an impossible task.

But last Saturday turned out to be the best day of the current Spring so far and in the few short hours the dedicated citizens had made tremendous strides in the improvement of the creek area.

More than 300 trees have now been planted on the creek banks in the two work-fun sessions that have taken place in the two years.

Some of the activity on Saturday is camera-viewed on this page. At 11:30 a.m. a lunch was served to more than 75 volunteer workers at Campbell Park.

COOPERATION--Al Smith (left), president of Rotary Club and Dean Chamberlin, of the Planning Commission, put a tree in place.



DOING-A-GOOD-TURN--Members of Boy Scout Troop #375, sponsored by Rosemary Home and School Club, were willing workers on Saturday both in the tree planting and clean-up projects along the creek.

POUNDERS--Jerry Duncan (on the car) and Bill Teepel, two city employees, who used assembly-line tactics on Saturday in pounding in the stakes for the trees that were planted.

TWO MORE ROWS--Here is a view of two rows of trees that were planted by volunteer workers on Saturday along the Los Gatos Creek bank.

WILLING WORKER--Although not a resident within the city limits, Mrs. Jean Bothman (above) demonstrated Saturday that she considered Campbell her own community. Several of her neighbors, all San Jose residents as far as the city limits signs are concerned, participated in the tree-planting work session.

COUNCILMEN AT WORK---Three Campbell city councilmen take special care in the planting of a Douglas Fir that was donated by Mrs. Alberta Abrott, of 1324 Bent Drive, an employee in the city's building department. Left to right Charlie Rose, Ed Rogers and Ralph Doetsch.

HILL CLIMBERS--Members of Boy Scout Troop #375 "blaze" a trail up a creek bank in preparation for the tree planting last Saturday.

RESTING--Jeff Whitaker, city finance officer, takes a breather at Saturday's tree-planting project along the creek.

TIME-OUT--Councilman Charles Rose takes time out from his work Saturday to remove a rock from his shoe.

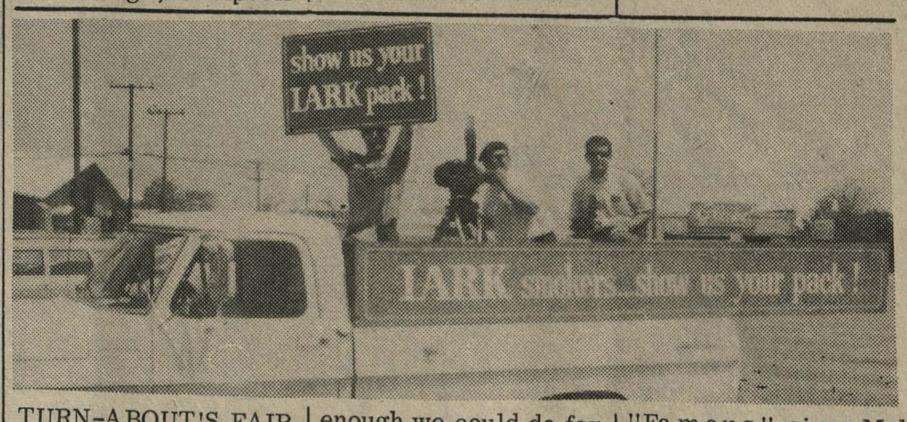
The Friendliest Place in Town

JUST FOR A LARK... These prominent men obligingly complied with the wishes of the photographer, and displayed the "Product". From the left: E.W. Korn, Lark Cigarette Representative; Bill Cavanaugh, Campbell Chamber of Commerce Director; George Vierhus, C. of C. President; Charlie Rose, Councilman; Bob Bullard, C. of C. Director; Richard L. Lynn, Sales Supervisor for Liggett & Meyers Tobacco Co.

The Lark Truck arrived at the Campbell Plaza yesterday afternoon, and invited ALL of Campbell to be "on Camera"; these were just a few of the many "notables" who showed up for the "national show".



TURN-ABOUT'S FAIR PLAY!--The "Press" photographer turned his camera upon the camera crew visiting in Campbell yesterday, and put them in the "local scene". It's little enough we could do for them...after all, aren't WE going to be on TV? (The City of Campbell, that is!) The men on the truck are: left to right, Walter Lightner, holding the "Famous" sign, Mel Merrifield, manning the camera, and Roger Schmalz, "zooming in". Now you know "Who's Who" when next you see them on your "magic lantern"!
